

Haflinger Society Of Great Britain General Data Protection Regulation Privacy Policy

The Haflinger Society of Great Britain is strongly committed to protecting your privacy and complying with your choices. Both personal and non-personal information collected is safeguarded according to the highest privacy and data protection standards adopted world wide.

We have always had a robust and effective data protection program in place which complies with existing law and abides by the data protection principles. However we recognise our obligations in updating and expanding the program to meet the demands of the GDPR and the United Kingdom Data Protection Act 2018.

Our commitment

Your information will not be shared, rented or sold to any third party.

The Haflinger Society of Great Britain is committed to processing data in accordance with its responsibilities under the GDPR.

Article 5 of the GDPR requires that personal data shall be:

- a. processed lawfully, fairly and in a transparent manner in relation to individuals;
- b. Collected for specified, explicit and legitimate purposes and not further processed in a manner that is incompatible with those purposes; either processing for archiving purposes in the public interest, scientific or historical research purposes or statistical purposes shall not be considered to be incompatible with the initial purposes;
- c. adequate, relevant and limited to what is necessary in relation to the purpose for which they are processed;
- d. accurate and, where necessary, kept up to date; every reasonable steps must be taken to ensure that personal data that are inaccurate, having regard to the purpose for which they are processed, are erased or rectified without delay;
- e. Kept in a form which permits identification of data subjects for no longer than is necessary for the purpose for which the personal data are processed; personal data may be stored for longer periods insofar as the personal data will be processed solely for archiving purposes subject to implementation of the appropriate technical and organizational measures required by the GDPR in order to safeguard the rights and freedoms of individuals. In any case, this will be for no more than 12 years.
- f. processed in a manner that ensures appropriate security of the personal data, including protection against unauthorised or unlawful processing and against accidental loss, destruction or damage, using appropriate technical or organization measures.

Notice

1. We will clearly inform you when information that personally identifies you (“personal information”) is asked for and you will have the choice to provide it or not. Generally, this information is requested when you become a registered member, or other online services
